

POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCH POSITION AT THE POLYMERS AND SOFT MATTER GROUP

Materials Physics Center (Donostia / San Sebastián)

The Polymers and Soft Matter Group at CFM is offering a Postdoctoral position (1 year) starting in September 2023 to work with Dr. Ester Verde-Sesto and Dr. Jon Maiz. The activities undertaken by this postdoctoral researcher are an integral part of the I+D+i project TED2021-130107A-I00 Highly Polar Polymers and Nanocomposites for Energy Storage Applications: from Design and Synthesis to Structural and Dynamic Characterization, funded by MCIN/AEI /10.13039/501100011033 and by the European Union NextGenerationEU/ PRTR.

The selected candidate will be hired by the Research Association MPC - Materials Physics Center. The salary will be 35.650,44 euros a year before taxes.

Candidates must hold a PhD degree in Physics, Chemistry, Chemical or Material Engineering. Expertise in polymers will be highly appreciated for this particular position, as well as background in experimental methods like calorimetric, scattering or relaxation techniques.

The Polymer and Soft Matter Group addresses fundamental problems related with the structural and dynamical properties of soft matter systems, mainly based on polymers. Current research topics in the group include blends, all-polymer nanocomposites, or single-chain nanoparticles.
